The prospect of a general railway strike in the United States formed an additional element in depressing the large sales came about owing to the assumed chance of a quicker conclusion of the European war. Although the tremendous pressure to unload holdings carried away for a while all other considerations the extraordinary break in values proved too tempting for buyers to resist, and the market showed the consequence in rallies of 3c to 3\%c from the lowest level.

Bear traders generally took the view that the action of Roumania was likely to prove a big factor in forcing a more speedy end of hostilities or would at least tend to hurry the opening of the Dardaneles.

In the late dealings, weakness again became acute. Prices tumbled lower than before and closed demoralized, \(9\%\)\(0\)\(

NEW YORK, August 28.-Roumania's entrance into the European conflict emphasizes as its most significant fact the judgment of the Bucharest governmen least in the eastern battle area.

Roumania has waited with unusual patience for two years before deciding the central empires can not gain a victory possession of Bucharest authorities must now be fairly conclusive, or the old policy of caution would continue to dictate Rou-

In effect, it is an intimation to the Bulgars that Roumania will not interfere with Bulgarian designs against Serbia, if the Bulgars do not hamper Roumania's the Bulgars do not hamper Roumania's desire to conquer the Hungarian pre-luce of Translyvania. The central empires will bring strong pressure to bear on Bulgaria to reject this proposal, but there is a chance that the Bulgars will play their hand very cautiously.

There is no present possibility that Roumania's entrance into the war will open the Dardanelles and permit Russian grain to relieve the world's scarcity of foodstuffs. The Roumanians will not venture on a roundabout campaign against Turkey, and even though Turkey declares war against Roumania the latter's attitude must be a defensive one against the Moslems.

Transvivania Main Objective.

Transylvania Main Objective.

It is not probable that Roumania for the present will engage in a major offensive anywhere except against Transylvania. There is a large Roumanian population in Transylvania and by directing all effort in this single direction, the Rou-manian campaign will gather impetus through the enthusiasm of racial rescue work.

The chief advantage of Roumania's entrance will go to Russia. The principal victim will be Hungary, whether in loss of territory or loss of men. Efforts to arrange a separate peace by the Hungarian government are by no means an impossible development of the situation.

PRAISES INDIANA PRISON.

Maude Ballington Booth Speaker at Chautauqua in Richmond. [Special to The Indianapolis News] RICHMOND, Ind., August 28.-Maude Ballington Booth, in her address at the Richmond Chautauqua today, paid a high tribute to Indiana for prison reform "We should choose for the heads of our penal institutions the cleanest, brightest and ablest men in the land," Mrs. Booth said. "In many states the prison warden's job is merely a political job. Thank God that is not the attitude of Indiana. It has been my joy to hold up Indiana as an example to other states. I believe your prison at Michigan City is the cleanest state prison in the United States."

Mrs. Booth, during her stay in Richmond, is the guest of the Federation of Woman's clubs here. She was introduced to the audience by Mrs. E. E. McDivit.
